Broker's Comment:

This Sun Odyssey 42.1 is, without exaggeration, one of the best-presented examples of her age currently on the market. The owner have maintained the yacht with remarkable diligence, ensuring all key systems, finishes, and onboard amenities remain in excellent operational order. The vessel shows pride of ownership in every compartment—from the engine bay to the teak decks—demonstrating a level of care rarely seen in similar listings. She is fully prepared for immediate cruising with no major works foreseen. A viewing is strongly recommended for any buyer seeking a reliable, clean, and genuinely well-looked-after performance cruiser
